

Tim Cromwell Elected Board Rep. for MDNA Philly Chapter

Morrisville, PA – Local Philadelphia Chapter of the Machinery Dealers National Association (MDNA) has a new Board Representative. Tim Cromwell of A&A Machinery Moving, Inc. has been named the new board representative for the MDNA Philadelphia Chapter.

The MDNA is an international nonprofit trade association, established to promote the used machinery industry. The MDNA currently has almost 400 members across the globe with 17 members in the Philadelphia Chapter. Machinery dealers, auctioneers and appraisers make up the MDNA member landscape.

In Tim's new position as the Board Rep. for the Philadelphia Chapter, Tim will be the voice of the chapter at the national level, attending all MDNA Board Meetings. Tim will also facilitate the flow of information to and from the National Board to the Philadelphia Chapter and vote on National Board issues.

Tim has been in his position as the Manager of Sales and Acquisitions for A&A Machinery Sales for the past two years. Prior stops for Tim included companies within the industrial auction industry.
