T. L. Hart highly recommended

I have hired T. L. Hart repeatedly on renovation projects at both Reno's East and Reno's West. Terry's staff has done a great job on painting the interior and exterior of the properties in a timely fashion while working around our business hours and guests. The painters and estimators are knowledgeable, make creative suggestions, and go above and beyond to make sure we are happy with the results. I would highly recommend T. L. Hart for any painting project.

Complements on your team

Compliments on your team. Ryan and John were energetic, organized, efficient, effective and professional. In less than ideal circumstances and weather conditions the process seemed effortless and the results most satisfactory. Paul's efforts are greatly appreciated. His stick-to-it-iveness and ability to go the distance are formidable assets. We thank you for a fine team effort.

Timely

Very timely. Very pleasant. Worked 8-hour days, no weekends, no nights. Took about 10 days to complete. Two people painted by hand, not spray paint.

T.L Hart helped in a pinch...

Just a note of sincere thanks. I don't know if all of you know what a gift you gave to me. After a house fire (yuk!) and drywall repair, I waited for another company to paint my home for eight months. (The owner) is enduring major health issues and it has been a hardship on his business and family. After canceling my paint project for the fifth time, I called you in my own dilemma. I was having a house full of professional study club mates for four days. It was three weeks before they arrived and I called to see if, by any chance you could help. I KNOW you were already booked, but somehow you made it happen. You came in for two days with a big crew and completed the job. Needless to say to YOU, it was a beautiful result. Everything was clean and put back together. I couldn't believe my eyes. I want you to know how grateful I am for the work that you do, for your kindness, and for your wonderful customer service. I am proud that you are a Lansing small business. We are lucky to have you. I am lucky to have you.

Your staff is superb!

Eric did a fantastic job. What a nice young man, a true asset to your business. If we were to have any further inside painting we would request of you to send Eric to do the job. Thank you very much. Will have the exterior done next year.

Exceptional quality...We love it!

Love the paint job! I just want to let you know how happy my wife and I are with the painting project you just completed for us. You and your team were so responsive and helpful, along with being totally professional! The work was completed quicker than we had envisioned and was exceptional in quality. Needless to say with the new colors and refreshed areas, the home is much brighter and vibrant – we absolutely love it! Thank you so much. R. T.
