This letter is written in personal recommendation of Chatman Painting.

Chatman Painting has served our AIS Group Home for the past several years. The quality of work provided is of high standards. Chatman Painting in my opinion strives for customer satisfaction. I have personally dealt with Derek Chatman, he is a very trustworthy and conscientious individual. His company is prompt, courteous, competent and above all customer oriented. Upon completion of specified work, Derek personally ensures the quality of work and customer satisfaction. "If" a problem should arise Chatman Painting is more than willing to make it right.

It is my opinion that Chatman Painting will provide the services you are looking for.

Sincerely,

Kim L. McComb
