I love my wrought iron window planter!

I wanted one that would be deeper, hence require less frequent watering. This one does the trick and it looks great.

Definitely adds charm and character to our 1929 colonial mudroom window.

Great, heavy quality construction and the cocoa mat is thick, so I don't always have dirt on my driveway when I water it.

I was glad, that despite the hurricane, Garden Artisans delivered it so quickly.

I had it in time for my son's very first day of kindergarten.

I'm looking forward to switching out the plantings, hoping to use it year round, even around Christmas. Was inspired by the ideas on your website.

Thank you.

I will shop from your site again.

Was surprised when I found the coco liner at my door late Sat. morning - just 27 hours from order to delivery! It is just the right size for my wire planter.

Thank you for the pleasant conversation regarding this order and providing exactly what your website described. Looks like I will also be getting a small credit on my AMEX!

The ornaments arrived so very quickly and in absolutely perfect condition! These birds are really beautiful and so wonderfully detailed. The acorn is especially pretty too! I am extremely pleased with your on-line store, your follow-up confirmation e-mails, and very prompt shipping! You really packed these delicate ornaments very carefully. Thank you again! Hi Janet. Just wanted to let you know that the birdbaths arrived in perfect condition and look just simply great. Particularly the larger one (chocolate color) is one of the most attractive birdbaths I've ever seen. The packing was excellent; if all merchants would give packaging as much thought very little would ever arrive damaged.

Best regards,

Greetings,

I hesitated to order from you all, because I wasn't familiar with your establishment, but I have been searching for months for an honest to goodness garden trug.

I ordered one last weekend, along with a couple of other small items, and I wanted to write to let you know what great service I received...my box arrived yesterday, all wrapped in plastic to protect it against the rain---yea FedEx-and I am LOVING my trug.

Quick service, great products, and if the weather cooperates I will be out this weekend getting that trug all dirty. Thanks so much,

Dear Janet Kirkpatrick:

The archway arrived safely Friday, the two packages came together (I had tried tracking but was only told that one had left New Jersey the previous weekend, and the other was just listed as accepted into the system)!

Regardlessafter a dull damp day yesterday, today was sunny and bright, exactly as forecast.

My husband and I, having fortified ourselves with a cup of tea, opened both packages and checked contents. Followed the clear and concise instructions and with very little hassle the archway was in place.

My sister in law and her husband happened to drop by at an opportune moment, and after a bribe of a beer, said brother in law took over the twiddly bits.

Once all was in place - 'lozenges' most handsome - I put my little white lights around the archway with the help of a stepstool of course.and about ten minutes ago the timer turned the lights on.

Might need a little tweaking tomorrow, but right now quite splendid. Only downside was that by the time we had finished it was slightly too chilly for that Gin and Tonic.

Not to worry, I am sure there will many a stroll up the garden and under the archway with the requisite beverage in hand over the course of the upcoming season.

I shall send you a photograph once the clematis has scrawled up and over - probably September! Thank you so much for your help and encouragement.

Thank you very very much for the very fast delivery of my order. I have received it and everything looks excellent. It is so gratifying to deal with a company that is as high in quality of service as it is in quality of product.

I wanted to thank you for all your help in getting our order to us this week. Ø Thank you for immediately taking a pro-active, personal interest in our dilemma – to the point of providing me with your cell phone number. Ø Thank you for the integrity in your product, letting us know what is, and is not, up to your standards. I saw what you were referring to in the smaller liner, but for this job it worked just fine. The two large liners could not have been more perfect. Ø And thank you for your cordial, kind demeanor. Thank you, Janet!

I received the two stepping stones today, cloud and rose, and was so excited I wanted to e-mail you and say thank you!!! The stones are prettier than I could imagine and am so anxious to utilize them in my yard as soon as the project is over!!

Sincerely,
