Over the years using The Blue Book, we have experienced an increase in quote requests. The traffic to our ProView profile, direct calls and emails have helped Access become a more widely recognized name in the industry due to advertising in the network. Our ads have generated leads that help The Blue Book pay for itself. The Showcase gave us the exposure we needed to make connections face to face with general contractors we may not have had a relationship with already. Thank you to our business consultant, Rachel, and The Blue Book team for pointing us in the right direction throughout the years.
