To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in regards to The Blue Book service contractor service that we signed up for as a company. I've paid for many different services as a contractor and The Blue Book is hands down the best value for the money. In less than a half a year we've landed a number of very lucrative jobs and developed a number of great relationships with contractors. Partnering with the Blue Book has allowed me to grow my company faster than I had anticipated. We now have more job requests to select from than the time or resources to handle. I've actually dumped most of the rest of my marketing resources as they pale in comparison to the value I get from The Blue Book.

Our sales rep Michael Gast is also a top notch representative to work with. Not once did I feel pressured to use their services. He is helpful, informative and very easy to reach if I have questions. I am convinced that The Blue book is the best resource for growing your contracting business available.

Sincerely,

Matt Thompson
