

Dear Blue Book,

I was going to let my program in the Blue Book expire but have decided not to because I am going to focus on working the opportunities available through Blue Book. In the past I have not had the time or resources to follow up but the leads were coming in every day.

I look forward to a successful relationship and learning more about how I can speed up my bid process. I would recommend the Blue Book for anyone looking to grow their commercial construction business.