

Good morning Ms Iris McKie,

I really enjoyed The Blue Book Showcase on yesterday. The experience is one I'll always hold dear to my heart! You were thorough, alert, accommodating, professional, and exemplified such confidence in your team. I loved watching you keep everything fulfilled so smoothly!

The opportunities to meet people with "like minds" and common goals was immeasurable!

Steven Jamison, my Account Executive, has been a very patient and diligent advocate for my engagement with The Blue Book. I remember meeting him at the National Association of Women in Construction's most recent meeting. He answered the call for help and direction to get my business moving with contracting opportunities. The fact that he spoke out was a winning move for me! He spoke out, shared his contact information and FOLLOWED UP with me. Had he not told me on yesterday he has been with The Blue Book officially since this February, I would have always thought he was well seasoned and a Top Producer! This just goes to show how much he believes in The Blue Book and what it does for Contractors like me. I'm very glad we met!!!

I'm looking forward to many years of continued success with your team at The Blue Book!

Thank you for your winning platform, 360!

With kind regards, I am
Angela R. Brown, Manager
