Over the last 16 years, I've worked with an absorbent amount of different construction companies and contractors and to be completely honest they've not been able to provide the quality of work, professionalism, and work ethic as PRI Construction. AHD, Inc. has worked with PRI Construction over 12 years with very little issues or delays. Whether it's a small painting project or a full apartment building restoration due to fire, flood, residents neglect, or insurance loss; PRI Construction has been able to handle it all! They've handled all our various insurance loss claims over the years from start to finish with outstanding accuracy and always having the properties best interest at heart.

Many of our projects are federally funded and provide very slim operational budgets to do large capital projects, however because of PRI's innovative construction techniques, it's allowed us to work through inevitable issues that have arisen while never having to sacrifice quantity nor quality! We've always had the comfort of knowing that because PRI Construction is handling all our construction needs that any job will be done quickly, efficiently and quite often significantly under budget.

We have the utmost confidence in the PRI construction team and would with immense pleasure recommend the PRI team to continue to handle all our construction needs for the foreseeable future.
