To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you what a pleasure it is to have a business relationship with Ceiling Pro. On numerous occasions the work was not only done as promised, but there was also follow up to make sure that my need, as the customer, was met.

I would also like to commend one of the employees that work for your company.

Ed Krueger is the most personable and sincere person I have ever met. After we complete the project we're working on, he always goes the extra mile and makes sure the job was completed to my satisfaction and makes a personal connection-such as asking how my family is doing. Taking this kind of time considering how busy his schedule is, is why Ceiling Pro is a company I enjoy working with, and will continue to work with, in the future.

Sincerely,

Rich Birk
