Dear Tara,

April 12, 2013

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Film Green Bay, I would like to extend a thank you for your sponsorship of the 2013 Green Bay Film Festival. This was our third festival—and the best one yet.

This year there were 400 films submitted by filmmakers from 36 different countries. Of the 400 films submitted, 98 were chosen for viewing at the festival, and 34 filmmakers attended. These filmmakers came from all over the United States and Canada. Total attendance at the festival this year was nearly 1500, an amazing 60% increase over 2012.

The generous support of our sponsors is integral to both our current success and our continued growth. Further, we could not have run our 2013 Film Festival without the support of our volunteers, who this year alone logged over 6000 hours in the preparation and facilitation of this special event. Aided by the substantial and continued support of our sponsors and volunteers, we will work to make sure that the 2014 Film Festival is better than any of its predecessors. Please mark your calendars for next year's Green Bay Film Festival, which will be held on February 21-23 at the Radisson. We sincerely hope to see you there.

Thank you,
