To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Letter of Bondability – Blue Nose IT Solutions, Inc.

We are writing to you at the request of our client, Blue Nose IT Solutions, Inc. We understand that our principal has expressed an interest in performing certain construction work for you on the referenced project, or otherwise confirming their bonding capacity to you.

Please be advised that Blue Nose IT Solutions, Inc.'s bonding support is currently provided by Philadelphia Insurance Company, a California admitted surety insurer who is rated "A" by A M Best and is on the federal treasury's list of approved sureties. Their current bonding capacity allows for consideration of single projects up to $450,000 and an aggregate capacity of $450,000.

Should a contract/contracts for future work be awarded to Blue Nose IT Solutions, Inc., it is our present intention to provide any performance and labor and material bonds as may be required by those contracts. This is contingent upon our satisfaction with the contract documents and the principal continuing to satisfy other underwriting considerations in the normal course of business. You understand, of course, that any arrangement for the final bond(s) is a matter between Blue Nose IT Solutions, Inc. and their surety, and we assume no liability to third parties, or to you, if for any reasons we do not execute said bond(s).

Feel free to contact us if we can be of further assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,
