Dear Friend:

It is my pleasure to congratulate you on receiving the Small Business Person of the Year 2008 Award from the Cecil County Chamber of Commerce.

You deserve to be commended for your contribution to the business community. By exhibiting the determination and responsibility that makes our country great, you set forth an example for fellow small businesses to aspire to.

I know that you are proud of your work and the difference you are able to make in the lives of so many people. I trust that you will continue your efforts and provide valuable services for years to come.

Congratulations and Best Wishes!

Sincerely,
