Fearing's Audio Video Security Recognized as Marcus Theatres Vendor of Excellence

Madison, WI (April 5, 2018) -- Fearing's Audio Video Security, based in Madison, Wisconsin, announced today that it was awarded the prestigious Vendor of Excellence Award by Marcus Theatres, a division of The Marcus Corporation, at Marcus' annual Spring Leadership Conference on March 15. Fearing's Audio Video Security was one of six companies to be honored, including Cloud Industries, J&J Snack Foods Corporation, The ICEE Company, C. Cretors & Company and Lionsgate.

"Our Vendor Partners of Excellence are selected based on the impact they've made on Marcus Theatres' business throughout 2017," said Rolando Rodriguez, chairman, president and CEO of Marcus Theatres, in a press release. "With their support, we are able to deliver an extraordinary guest experience. We are incredibly appreciative of their efforts and are excited to recognize them with these awards."

Fearing's AVS, which crafts innovative low voltage systems for commercial and residential customers across the Midwest, has partnered with Marcus Theatres to design and install the Take Five Lounge<sup>SM</sup> audio and video systems; box office, concession and auditorium displays; and lobby sound systems. Locally, the most recent installation was the Take Five Lounge and lobby at Palace Cinema in Sun Prairie.

“It was a blessing to be able to represent our great team of people at the presentation of this Vendor Partner of Excellence Award,” says co-owner and President of Fearing’s AVS, Doug Fearing, who traveled to Cancun, Mexico for the Marcus Theatres conference to receive the award. “To be recognized by such a prestigious client as Marcus Theatres is truly an honor.”

Chris Matson, Vice President of Sales at Fearing’s says, “We are very fortunate to have had such a successful year in 2017 and are looking forward to our continued growth working with great partners like Marcus Corporation.”

Fearing’s Audio Video Security has been designing and installing audio, video and security systems throughout the Midwest since 1997.
