Re: Clifford R. Layman
Historic Roof Company, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Cliff for over ten years and have not met a more knowledgeable nor capable roofer for historic structures. I have been the architect for new roofing at the Charles Carroll House in Annapolis, the Caton-Carroll House in Baltimore, and Liriodendron in Bel Air, all historic roof work done by Cliff Layman. When my own 1878 church had flashing problems, I called on Cliff. From personal experience I know him to be knowledgeable about historic slate, wood shingle, metal roofing and flashings, and roof drainage.

There's no one I would recommend ahead of Cliff Layman for historic roof work.

Yours sincerely,
