RE: AMERICAN RESTORATION – ANTHONY DRAGONE

Dear Mr. Ferina:

I am the attorney for the Fox Hills community in Rockaway, New Jersey. In that capacity, I became aware of severe construction defects left behind by the building's developer.

The Association's manager sought the advice of several professionals and contractors in efforts to address the building cladding issues and leaks resulting therefrom. Several contractors tried to stem the leaks. Only American Restoration, under the guidance of Mr. Dragone was able to stop the leaks. He has done substantial work at Fox Hills since that time, and I am aware of no issues with his work

Please feel free to call if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,
GRIFFIN ALEXANDER, P.C.

Robert C. Griffin, Esq.
