To Whom it May concern:

We at Marmol Radziner pride ourselves on detail on every level from the design stage in architectural planning, to completion of Construction making that dream on paper a reality. We have worked with John from Industrial skylights since 2005. We use his company for every skylight job as we know we will get a quality skylight for our building project. We also feel that John's attention to detail is incredibly harmonious with ours. He looks at his skylights as work of art and takes great care and effort to insure the final customer will think so too. He has always worked with our schedule and our budget. If there has ever been an issue on site, Industrial Skylights has always bent over backwards to work with us to make things right. For these reasons John at Industrial Skylights is the only skylight company we use.

Sincerely,

Jim Dunne
