RE: Interior Demolition, Inc. - Statement of Pre-Qualification

This letter is to advise you that Interior Demolition, Inc. is a valued client of ours and Philadelphia Indemnity Insurance Company is privileged to provide suretyship for this fine construction firm. Philadelphia Indemnity Insurance Company is an admitted surety in the State of California, is rated A++ XV by A.M. Best Company, and is on the United States Treasury Listing of Approved Sureties.

Interior Demolition, Inc. has undertaken several projects for various owners and successfully completed every one of them. In our opinion, Interior Demolition, Inc.'s blend of in-house management and field personnel make it uniquely qualified to be considered for your project.

Interior Demolition, Inc.'s current bond capacity is five million dollars ($5,000,000.00) on an individual project and eight million dollars ($8,000,000.00) on an aggregate basis, although that is not intended to be a limitation of their bonding capacity.

All projects requiring bonds are underwritten on an individual basis. Any actual commitment to provide a bond is contingent upon a formal request by Interior Demolition, Inc. and our application to the underwriting process at the time of the request. This process will include a review of the contract documents including the performance and payment bond forms and project financing. While this letter should not be considered a specific commitment to bond a particular project, with normal underwriting requirements being prevalent at the time of such a request, we can foresee no difficulty in issuing any required performance and payment bonds.

If any additional information is required, please contact the undersigned at (949)457-1060.

Sincerely,

Linda D. Coats, Attorney-In-Fact
Philadelphia Indemnity Insurance Company
