TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

RE: Rentex Construction, Inc. - Letter of Bondability

We are writing you at the request of Rentex Construction, Inc. We understand that our client is desirous of performing work for your company on certain projects. This letter will address their bonding relationship for those purposes.

Rentex Construction's current surety relationship is established with State National Insurance Company, a surety that is California admitted and A rated by A.M. Best. Their aggregate bonding program contemplates a single project of roughly $500,000 and a total aggregate bonded amount of $2,000,000.

Please be advised that it is our present intention to provide the performance and payment bonds on behalf of Rentex Construction, Inc. should they be required by their subcontract(s) with you. As always, this is contingent upon our satisfaction with the contract documents and the principal continuing to satisfy other underwriting considerations in the normal course of business. You understand, of course, that any arrangement for such bond(s) is a matter between Rentex Construction, Inc. and ourselves, and we assume no liability to third parties, or to you, if for any reasons we do not execute said bond(s).

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Anne Wright', written over a light blue horizontal line.
