Business licensing

You may be required to apply for business licenses with the Department of Revenue or other state agencies before you can legally operate a business as a corporation, limited liability company, or Massachusetts trust.

In addition, if your business will operate under any names different from the names on this document, you must register them as trade names with the Department of Revenue.

To get licensing information and forms, visit business.wa.gov/BLS. If you have questions about business licensing or registering trade names, please contact:
