Russ, as we discussed, you have been approved for bonding up to $350k with Liberty Mutual. They are one of the largest surety companies in the U.S., congratulations.

There is no fee for bid bonds and performance and payment bonds will cost 3% of the contract amount. When submitting bid requests, please try to give adequate lead time to get approval from the surety. (the $300k bid bond on the 11th has been approved). I am just filling in for Ryan so future bid bond requests should be sent to susuan@surety1.com and ryan@surety1.com. A bid bond request form is also attached for your future reference.

Attached is the application you completed and we have added an indemnity agreement on Page 4. You need to sign the agreement twice on the lines over your name and your spouse also needs to sign. Please date the agreement as well. Fax or e-mail it back and we will issue the bid bond.

Welcome to the Surety1!
