To Whom It May Concern:

Daniel and his crew at D&I Painting recently completed the job of painting, wallpapering, caulking and staining wood inside and outside our new medical/retail office. The job required a lot attention to detail as we used expensive wallpaper in our highly lit showroom. He was also required to mix stain colors properly in order to match exposed beams with other design elements. When we asked him to improvise, as we made changes, he was willing to work with us. We asked him to return to finish a few punch list items and he was timely in completing these items. Daniel and his crew did an excellent job. The wallpaper was flawlessly hung, the painting was completed timely and neatly, the nail holes filled properly, and the stains matched impeccably. We highly recommend Daniel and D&I Painting! We will be using him again for future projects, including our home.

Sincerely,
