

INTEGRITY. VALUE. PERFORMANCE.
Built into everything we do.

To whom it may concern

It is my honor and privilege to heartily recommend Intelligrated Communications, Inc. for any project that requires their scope. Currently, Intelligrated Communications is subcontracted to Vector Constructors on two of our largest projects. Mat Amerman and his team work diligently with Vector on many of our projects to come up with innovative ideas to maintain the schedule and flow of the work.

Once on the project, Intelligrated Communications has always exceeded our expectations and gets great reviews from our clients. They have shown professionalism, an interest in quality control, and do what they say when they say.

Once again, I would not hesitate to utilize Intelligrated Communications on future projects and anticipate a long and successful relationship. That said, I again recommend Intelligrated Communications with no reservations.

Sincerely,
