Our History

A 90-YEAR COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

It's been quite a colorful road for Ralph E. Jones, Inc. Our company was founded in 1924 by its namesake, and in 1947, John Peiffer and other employees purchased the business from Jones' estate and kept the company name.

In our 90-year history, the company has endured both the Great Depression of the 20th century and the Great Recession of the 21st century. During the 1940s and 1950s, the company faced tremendous growth as the construction market boomed and schools, houses and churches were built.

Through the decades, John Peiffer and fellow partners continued to grow the business by never losing sight of their commitment to excellence - in workmanship, safety and customer service. In 2010, Mr. Peiffer sold controlling interest and ownership of Ralph E. Jones to Beth A. Peiffer.

Today, Ralph E. Jones continues to thrive and serve customers throughout Central PA and MD, VA, DC and NJ. We are a proud family business with third and fourth-generation employees, and are also a certified Women's Business Enterprise (WBE). We are an honored recipient of numerous safety and craftsmanship awards, including six consecutive safety honors from Mid Atlantic BX.

Last but certainly not least, our staff is passionately committed to our local community through volunteer involvement in several non-profit organizations.
